HOW ANGELS LOVE.

The Life of Mrs. Plunkett and Mr. Worthington.

THEY ARE MUCH TOO PLATONIC.

Their flesh may be weak, but their spirit is All Right—Soul Longings—A Divine Marriage.

[Special to the Herald—Examiner Dispatch.]

New York, June 7.—Recently Worthington, who supplanted John J. Plunkett in the affections of Mrs. Mary H. Plunkett, will not leave the Christian Science association nor discontinue his healing.

April 1 John J. Plunkett moved from the Temple of Christian Science, taking two pieces of luggage and a copy of the International Association of Christian Scientists and the blessing of his wife. He showed no tendency to object at the time to his wife's preference for another, but when, on May 10, the Magazine appeared, Mr. Plunkett was horrified to find at the head of its list of teachers and practitioners, the name of John J. Plunkett, which had headed the list ever since 1881. Depressed. The healer was justified in howling and he intends to keep it up. The "spirit marriage" of June 2 was the last straw.

"Dr. Worthington was seen today in the temple, preparing for the July number of the Magazine an account of his metaphysical marriage. 'I am glad to see a reporter,' he said. 'The papers have treated us fairly, but I will reserve for the Magazine any statements Mrs. Worthington and I care to make. As to a defense, we shall attempt none. We are conscious of our own honesty and we know that the cost is. We sacrifice everything the world holds dear, for the establishment of principles that we have found through Christian Science in the relation of marriage. All that bothers me is that miserable man Plunkett, who is unworthy of the exertion of talking, writing or thinking about. How dare he claim an interest in Mrs. Worthington's work? As to this claim, he absolutely has none. He can establish none in equity, civil law or science. He has a superb nerve to demand what he considers his rights. Ugh! I could tear his nose off if I were not tied hand and foot by the principles of the creed to which I subscribed. He says Mrs. Worthington made between sixteen thousand and twenty thousand dollars a year out of the Magazine. It is false, false. She is rich only in the bank of heaven. She put $2,000 more into the plant than she got out, and she never even got her clutz out of it. Plunkett is the worst because they were tied of seeing her wear the same dress so long. There are too many money catchers in this world already, but Mrs. Worthington does not belong to the number. If my stern devotion to truth were less, I would be tempted to take him by the back of the neck. And his gesture implied that he would shake the daylights out of his presumptuous money-grubbing deceiver."

Worthington believes that for every man there is a mate who answers to the longings of the heart and whose sympathy can hear and hush the groanings of his soul. "Have you ever loved? You have surely," the reporter admitted fifteen attacks of about ten days each. "Oh they were not love," said Mr. Worthington. "They were only the forerunners of that great, grand, soul-filling passion, which will one day take possession of you and culminate in marriage, real marriage. As marriage now exists there is no life or love; no husband and wife. It is as with brother and sister, indefinite and subjective. The condition called marriage as enforced by law, is not marriage but bondage. Marriage as now regulated is wicked, however, and has no divine purpose."

The Remarkable Cures Which have been effected by Hood's Sarsaparilla are sufficient proof that this medicine does possess peculiar curative power. In the severest cases of scrofula or salt rheum, when other preparations had been powerless, the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla has brought about the happiest results. The case of Miss Sarah C. Whittier, of Lowell, Mass., who suffered terribly from scrofulous sores; that of Charles A. Root, of East Wilson, N. Y., who had sixteen abscesses on his face and neck; that of Willie Duff, of Walpole, Mass., who had his disease and scrofula so bad that physicians said he could not recover, are a few of the many instances in which wonderful cures were effected by this medicine.

THE PARADOX.
She Will be Launched To-day and Will Compete for the America's Cup.

[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Cable.]
Eastbourne, England, June 7.—The launching of the yacht Paradox, which will compete for the America's cup, if it answers expectations, was effected here this afternoon, in the presence of a large concourse of people. The vessel was moved to within ten feet of the sea and will enter the water at high tide tomorrow morning.

It is more than a generation since a lugger rigged yacht was seen in English waters. In the case of the Paradox, the necessity of lowering the sail when moving from one side of the mast to the other, will be obviated by an ingenious arrangement. The foremast is sixty feet high, the mainmast seventy feet, the yard twenty-two feet long and the sail area about two thousand square feet. The Paradox is the largest yacht ever built at Eastbourne and the largest lugger rigged yacht in the world. It was constructed by G. Gauden, the well known ship-builder of that town. A peculiarity of the hull is that it is perfectly straight at the bows, and tapers off toward the rudder. Mr. Ratham, her owner, will take part in the yacht race which will take place off Queenstown, June 11.

Disease and Death
Force their way into many a household that might be protected from their inroads by the simple precaution of keeping in the house that benign family medicine and safeguard of health, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Particularly where there are children, should it be kept on hand, as a prompt remedy for infantile complaints, in their outset easily conquerable, but which, if allowed to engraft themselves on the delicate childish organism, are not easily dislodged, and speedily work serious mischief. Irregularity of the bowels, indigestion and biliousness are ailments of common occurrence in the household. Children living in malarious regions are more liable to be attacked with chills and fever than adults, and the ravages of that fell disease in their system are speedier and more serious. In remote localities far from professional aid, it is especially desirable.

PIMPLES TO SCROFULA.

A POSITIVE CURE FOR EVERY SKIN, SCALP, AND BLOOD DISEASE, EXCEPT ICHTHYOSIS.

Psoriasis 3 years. Head, arms and breast solid scab. Back covered with sores. Best doctors and medicines fail. Cured by Cuticura Remedies at a cost of $3.75.

I have used the CUTICURA REMEDIES with the best results. I used two bottles of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, three bottles of CUTICURA, and one cake of CUTICURA SOAP, and my cure was a terrible skin and scalp disease known as psoriasis. I had it for eight years. I would go to bed and worse at times. Sometimes my head would be solid scab, and at the time I began the use of the CUTICURA REMEDIES. My arms were covered with scales from my elbows to shoulders, my breast was almost one solid scab, and my back covered with sores varying in size from a penny to a dollar. I had doctors with all the best doctors with no relief, and used many different medicines without effect. My case was hereditary, and I began to think incurable, but it began to heal from the first application of CUTICURA.

Skin Disease 6 Years Cured.
I am thankful to say that I have used the CUTICURA REMEDIES for about eight months with great success, and consider myself entirely cured of salt rheum, from which I have suffered for six years. I tried a number of medicines and two of the best doctors in the country, but found nothing that would effect a cure until I used your remedies.

The Worst Case of Scrofula Cured.
We have been selling your CUTICURA REMEDIES for years, and have the first complaint yet to receive from a purchaser. One of the worst cases of Scrofula I ever saw was cured by the use of five bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, CUTICURA, and CUTICURA SOAP.

Cuticura Remedies
Cure every species of agonizing, humbling, itching, burning, scaly and pimply diseases of the skin, scalp and blood, with loss of hair, from pimples to scrofula, except possibly ichthyosis.

PIMPLES black heads, red, rough, chapped and itchy skin prevented by CUTICURA SOAP.
